¹ An “^w” superscript indicates a widow or widower.

² Spouse’s before 1912 are based mostly on possible individuals. If there were more than two possible spouses (i.e. those mentioned on the same index page), they were not recorded here. Each index page before 1912 commonly listed either four or eight entries, so, if half were male and half female, the possible spouses are either two or four. Starting in 1912, the spouse was identified. If two or more alternative spouses are possible from entries in this index but information from other sources supports or confirms one of the alternatives, that single name is listed here.

³ Dates provided as the last month of the quarter in which the marriage was registered until 1984 when the month of registration is provided. Entries also or solely from the London, England, Marriages and Banns are shown, regardless of date, to the month of the marriage, though given as a full date of day, month, and year in the source and so recorded in the database.
